SCCC specializes primarily in orthopedic surgery, but other specialties include podiatry, ENT, plastic surgery, dental surgery, urology, and pain management. Provident Healthcare Partners served as exclusive financial advisor to SCCC. The terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

“Throughout our longstanding relationship with Provident, they have been incredibly professional and diligent in their efforts. I worked with many members of the Provident team and would absolutely recommend the firm without reservations. We couldn't have completed our sale without them,” commented Dr. Sunjay Berdia, Chairman of the Board and Shareholder for SCCC.

“SCA’s expertise in partnering with musculoskeletal-focused practices and surgery centers across the country will best position SCCC to continue to be a leader in high quality orthopedic care within central Maryland,” noted Kevin Palamara, Managing Director at Provident Healthcare Partners.

“SCCC has established itself as a leading orthopedic-focused, multispecialty surgery center in the state through attracting a group of highly respected physicians. The partnership with SCA will provide SCCC with the management resources and clout of a national provider of surgical care,” stated Eric Major, Director at Provident Healthcare Partners.
