

Gary M. Kirsh, MD

Dr. Gary Kirsh has been the President of The Urology Group, headquartered in Cincinnati, Ohio, since 2009. The group operates integrated surgical, imaging, laboratory, radiation, and clinical research services and is the largest provider of urologic care in the Cincinnati metropolitan region of over two million lives.

Dr. Kirsh has a long history of involvement in urologic health policy and advocacy. He is a past Chairman of UROPAC (2009-2013), and a past-president of the American Association of Clinical Urologists (2007-2008), the North Central Section of the AUA (2015-2016), and the Ohio Urologic Society (1998-1999).

In 2008, Dr. Kirsh was instrumental in founding LUGPA, a national trade association representing independent urologists. Dr. Kirsh has served as LUGPA's President (2014-2016), Chair of the Alternative Payment Model Task Force (2016-2018), and Chairman of Political Affairs (2016-present).

Dr. Kirsh has frequently spoken across the country on the socioeconomic and political issues facing urology and independent medicine. He has provided legislative testimony in support of physicians' issues at both the state and U.S. Congressional levels.

In 2020, Dr. Kirsh was a co-founder of Solaris Health, a multi-state private-equity backed medical services organization focused on the urology sector. Dr. Kirsh serves as President of Solaris Health (June 2020-present).

Dr. Kirsh's primary clinical interest is in prostate cancer. He is the founder and director of The Urology Group's Advanced Prostate Cancer Clinic and has lectured widely on therapeutic advances in prostate cancer.

Dr. Kirsh earned his medical degree from the University of Chicago, Pritzker School of Medicine in 1984. He completed his residency in urology at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1989.
