PROVIDENT HEALTHCARE PARTNERS ADVISES FERTILITY CENTERS OF NEW ENGLAND IN ITS PARTNERSHIP WITH FIRST FERTILITY

Fertility Centers of New England (FCNE), a market leader in comprehensive reproductive endocrinology and fertility services, has partnered with First Fertility, a portfolio company of Sverica Capital Management LP. FCNE offers a full suite of fertility and reproductive endocrinology services to patients throughout the New England Region. Provident Healthcare Partners (Provident) served as the exclusive financial advisor to Fertility Centers of New England. The terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

“It is my pleasure to give a wholehearted endorsement of the entire Provident team. Their professionalism, experience, positive attitude, and expert advice made the sale of our organization seamless. I will forever be grateful to them,” noted Dr. Joseph Hill, sole shareholder of Fertility Centers of New England.

“Provident is thrilled to have played a role in the partnership of two of New England’s preeminent IVF services providers. We believe that FCNE brings an established track record of clinical achievement and a robust business infrastructure to a platform that’s growing rapidly and poises this combined entity for great success, both within New England and beyond,” stated Scott Davis, Director at Provident.

“Fertility Centers of New England established an excellent reputation in the New England market as a leading provider of comprehensive reproductive endocrinology and fertility services. First Fertility is the perfect partner for FCNE, allowing the organization to retain its local governance while also sharing the same visions of becoming the leading ART provider across the United States,” commented Jake Vesely, Associate at Provident.
