Provident Healthcare Partners Advises James River Cardiology in its partnership with RC Capital to form Aligned Cardiovascular Partners

Provident Healthcare Partners (“Provident”), a leading healthcare investment banking firm, announced it has advised James River Cardiology (“JRC”) in its partnership with RC Capital (“RCC”) to form Aligned Cardiovascular Partners (“AlignedCardio”). James River Cardiology’s eight doctors and 17 total providers operate across six clinics and an Office-Based Lab in the greater Richmond, Virginia market.

Provident’s deal team was led by Managing Director Eric Major and Director Ajeya Shekar. Kaufman & Canoles served as legal counsel to James River Cardiology and McDermott, Will, and Emery served as legal counsel to RC Capital.

“The Provident team was instrumental in our partnership with RC Capital, through their in-depth understanding of cardiology physician services and years of transaction experience. Provident spent time to thoroughly understand our business and objectives and introduced us to RC Capital as the ideal partner with a shared vision for the future of cardiology. We are grateful for their guidance and assistance throughout the process,” commented Dr. Mitesh Amin, founder of James River Cardiology.

“We’re excited to officially announce the partnership between James River Cardiology and RC Capital to form a new platform in the specialty. Founded by Dr. Amin, JRC is led by a group of entrepreneurial physicians who have built the organization into a highly reputable provider of quality comprehensive cardiovascular patient care across the greater Richmond market,” commented Major. “This transaction aligns JRC with a partner that has deep experience supporting growth-oriented provider-based healthcare companies. We look forward to following the organization’s success in this new chapter.”
