Provident Healthcare Partners Advises Nightingale Services, Infusion, and Pharmacy in its Partnership with Honor Health Network

Provident Healthcare Partners (“Provident”), a leading healthcare investment banking firm, announced it has advised Nightingale Services, Infusion, and Pharmacy (“Nightingale”) in its partnership with Honor Health Network, a portfolio company of Webster Equity Partners. Nightingale is a leading provider of home care services in Georgia, offering personal care, skilled nursing, infusion, and pharmacy services. Nightingale operates 11 locations across Georgia and services patients in all 159 counties. The transaction represents Honor’s first acquisition into the Southeast region and its seventh affiliated state.

Provident’s deal team was led by Managing Director Kevin Palamara and Vice President Jake Vesely. Bouhan Falligant served as legal counsel to Nightingale and Goodwin Procter served as legal counsel to Honor Health Network.

"It has been a privilege to represent Heather, Brooke, and the entire Nightingale team in completing this transaction with Honor Health Network. Nightingale serves as a pivotal entry point for Honor to expand its offerings into the southeast. Together, the companies will continue to provide best-in-class home care services to patients in all 159 counties of Georgia and beyond," commented Vesely.
