Provident Healthcare Partners Advises Atlanta Heart Specialists in its Partnership with Cardiovascular Associates of America

Provident Healthcare Partners (“Provident”), a leading healthcare investment banking firm, announced it has advised Atlanta Heart Specialists (“AHS”) in its partnership with Cardiovascular Associates of America, a portfolio company of Webster Equity Partners. AHS provides general, diagnostic, and interventional cardiology services throughout its eight locations and two vascular labs in the Greater Atlanta market. AHS’ provider base includes fifteen cardiologists, six mid-level providers, and one podiatrist.

Provident’s deal team was led by Managing Director Eric Major. McDonald Hopkins, LLP served as legal counsel to AHS and Goodwin Procter LLP served as legal counsel to Cardiovascular Associates of America. The terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

“Going through the M&A process was a long, winding road. Provident has been with us every step of the way. Couldn’t have done it without them!” noted Dr. David Song, Managing Partner at AHS.

“Congratulations to the AHS physicians and the CVAUSA team on this partnership” noted Major. “AHS has grown into a leading provider of high-quality patient care in Metro Atlanta with an expansive footprint and breadth of cardiovascular services. We look forward to following their continued success.”
