Provident Healthcare Partners Advises Acentus in its Acquisition by Henry Schein

Provident Healthcare Partners (“Provident”), a leading healthcare investment banking firm, announced it has advised Acentus in the acquisition of substantially all of its assets by Henry Schein, Inc. Acentus is a national medical supplier specializing in the delivery of Continuous Glucose Monitors (CGMs). Acentus Founders Brett Carroll, Todd Cianfrocca, Greg Duvall, and Julio Valdivia will join Henry Schein, bringing their expertise and experience in the product category and the healthcare industry.

Provident’s deal team was led by Managing Director Kevin Palamara. Robinson & Cole served as legal counsel to Acentus. The agreement to acquire Acentus was announced on November 20, 2024.

“Hats off to the entire Provident team. They brought unmatched expertise, experience, and dedication to the process and their guidance and professionalism throughout the transaction exceeded all our expectations,” commented Todd Cianfrocca, CEO of Acentus.

“Congratulations to Acentus on this significant achievement. It has been a pleasure working alongside Todd and his entire team throughout this process,” commented Palamara.

“Todd and the Acentus team have developed a unique and differentiated CGM platform that has realized tremendous growth since its inception. We were proud to represent them through this process and are incredibly excited to see where this partnership with Henry Schein will take them going forward,” stated Brendan Schroeder, Senior Associate at Provident.
