Provident Healthcare Partners Advises The Dermatology Center in its Partnership with Epiphany Dermatology

Provident Healthcare Partners (“Provident”), a leading healthcare investment banking firm, announced it has advised The Dermatology Center, PA (“The Dermatology Center”) on its partnership with Epiphany Dermatology (“Epiphany”). The Dermatology Center is a comprehensive provider of dermatology services through two practice locations in Maryland.

Provident’s deal team was led by Directors Dustin Thompson and AJ Shekar, and Vice President Kevin McDermott. Bass, Berry & Sims served as legal counsel to The Dermatology Center, PA and Baker Donelson served as legal counsel to Epiphany.

“We were pleased with the expert guidance and strong network provided by the Provident team and their in-depth understanding of the dermatology sector that was instrumental to maximizing value,” commented David Bryant of The Dermatology Center.

“We were excited to advise The Dermatology Center through this transaction. This partnership represents a significant step forward in the continued growth and success of both organizations, and we are proud to have facilitated this collaboration,” commented Thompson.

“It was a privilege working with David Bryant and his team at The Dermatology Center. We’re confident that Epiphany Dermatology will be good stewards of the business going forward and continue to provide patients with high-quality skin care services,” stated McDermott.
