The acquisition expands HouseWorks’ footprint in New England and strengthens its ability to deliver high-quality in-home care to seniors across the region.

“This transaction highlights the continued demand for high-quality home care providers with strong reputations and deep relationships in their local markets,” said Vesely. “ACE has built an outstanding platform in Rhode Island, and we are proud to have helped the team find the right partner in HouseWorks, bringing together two organizations that share a strong commitment to supporting seniors and their families at home.”
