For immediate release:

HEARTS FOR HOSPICE HAS BEEN ACQUIRED BY ABODE HEALTHCARE

BOSTON, MA – (BUSINESS WIRE) – Hearts for Hospice, LLC, (Hearts) a provider of hospice and home health services to patients in Utah, Idaho, and Arizona, has been acquired by Abode Healthcare, a portfolio company of Frazier Healthcare. Hearts is a Medicare certified, and Medicaid approved organization providing end of life care to terminally ill patients and their families, as well as comprehensive restorative care to patients recovering from illnesses and injuries. The Company consists of several divisions including a hospice division (Hearts for Hospice) and a home health division (Hearts for Home Health). In additional to traditional home health and hospice services, Hearts provides non-emergency medical transportation services to its hospice patients and their families. Hearts has an excellent reputation in the healthcare community and throughout its service areas. Provident Healthcare Partners served as exclusive financial advisor to the Hearts for Hospice shareholders. The terms of transactions were not disclosed.

"Adobe Healthcare is the perfect fit for Hearts. Finding an ideal partner in terms of both strategy as well as cultural fit was not an easy task, and Provident played a major role in helping us to find that partner. Going forward, Hearts will be able to achieve much greater growth together with Adobe," stated Shaw Phillips, President and CEO of Hearts for Hospice.

"The owners of Hearts for Hospice have built a very strong and efficiently run hospice and home health company through a commitment to their patients and families they serve. Now, through this acquisition, Abode and Frazier will provide Hearts for Hospice with the resources it needs to maintain its focus on providing quality care while also achieving substantial growth," commented Justin Hand, Managing Director at Provident Healthcare Partners.
